Reader's Opinions

I've been trying to track down some Husserl, but I was having trouble finding Logical Investigations for under $200. This contains a lot of Husserl's essays from throughout the development of his thought. It then promises to show how Heidegger, Merleau-Ponty and Sartre took phenomenology. The first few chapters (The Paris Lectures and...

this is phenomenology for analytic philosophers. this is a historical document, from 1972, this edition 1980, and according to GR the 115th phenomenology text I have read. this would not have been the best first text, as it reminds me primarily of why I was not attracted to philosophy in the 80s- 90s at university- which was here mostly...
