Reader's Opinions

This book is more suited to the folklorist or student of folklore than to casual reading. The stories are presented in the original Cajun or Creole French with a side by side English translation. The author has classified the tales using the Aarne/Thompson tale type index (plus Baughman, Klipple & others), allowing easy comparison to...

A good collection of stories, but I think the author/collector's notes and comments fill up more of this book than the stories do.
