Reader's Opinions

Several classic weird tales and a few more prosaic ones. The best tales are stunning feats of imagination and hopefully Lewis's reputation will grow with this affordable paperback edition.

First published in 1934, these stories are surprisingly visceral in their descriptions and subject matter. These give the stories a hint of modernity. More than mere pulp, these stories are well researched and erudite. L.A. Lewis spices the stories with occult references and obscure dark legends. This is the first time it has been available...
