

CHEECH WIZARD, VOL. 1

One of the most influential artists of the underground generation, Vaughn Bode is a hero to a generation of graffiti artists. He died at a tragically young age in 1975, and these books collect most of his entire oeuvre. Schizophrenia is Bode's most personal work, including the legendary "The Man, " as well as Bode's personal diaries. Junkwaffel Vol. 2 is a collection of Bode's science-fiction oriented tales, including several "Deadbone" strips from Cavalier, "The Junkwaffel Papers, " and rare material. Cheech Wizard is a...

Reader's Opinions

The first story concerns Cheech Wizard being challenged by a Soviet Russian Army guy to a space race. It's a pretty typical outing for a silly cartoon. The art is nice. The stories are pretty text heavy, and the dialogue is pretty dated concerning the humour. Bode has a unique art style and some very interesting character designs, unfortunately...
