Reader's Opinions

Thats was emotionally exhausting! A great series would definitely recommend for me however the 1st book was by far the best, you do however have to finish the series.

What an amazing series...the highs and lows, ups and downs. The love Peyton and Braelynn had for each other was timeless, they had found their soul mates in each other. At times they drifted apart, due to mistakes they made and sometimes the mistakes of others. But the times they truly needed each other they always came through. Braelynn's...
