Peek Inside the Book

Regardless of where many of us believe we land - in that field encumbered by not too much baggage or entirely too much - we all come from the same place, which is a road rutted by experience so banal, nearly remarkable, that memory tricks us into remembrance of it again and again, as if experience alone were not enough. What are we to do with such a life, one in which we are not left alone to events - love, shopping, and...

Reader's Opinions

HILTON ALS. I love this guy!! It all began for me, as for so many people, with the infamous New Yorker article about Prince. That was when I began noticing his byline on article after article after review, and all of them were awesome! So when his book came out I was all over it and I was not disappointed. Welll.... maybe a little actually....
