

MY BROTHER

The boy in this book has a big brother who is good at everything. He's a wild rock singer and a terrific climber. He's read hundreds of books, he writes brilliant stories, and he's brave enough to stand up to bullies. To his adoring younger brother, this big brother is a hero. More...

Reader's Opinions

The hero-worship of the older brother is over-the-top here, but the ending statement (I'm cool, too) keeps it in balance. White background with cartoonish pictures of the brother, labeled to show his "cool" qualities.

The book is okay--nothing special. And I personally find the drawings odd--they kind of look like monkeys instead of boys to me. I wouldn't use it in storytime, but it was in one of our storytime kits.
