Reader's Opinions

A very well informative book. I loved how the author has added directions so that you can find the areas he is writing about. He had everything in this book if you are looking for the more unusual sights of London!

Great read, especially if you're holidaying in London, as I was at time of reading. Great descriptions and insight to places and venues that you wouldn't normally visit while in London, that are all accessible by underground. Had the good fortune to meet the author who gave us a tour of some of the...
