Reader's Opinions

A compelling look at men who were sentenced to death for crimes they committed when they were only teens. This book doesn't try to excuse the horrible crimes that the boys committed, nor does it try to claim that they are innocent. Instead, it asks why some...

Both of my grandparents died tragic deaths—one was murdered and the other was killed by a drunk driver. My parents believe in the death penalty, therefore, as a kid it seemed like a reasonable practice. As an adult, I have become interested in how "the system" works and I'm realizing that it is totally messed up. One thing I like about...
