

DELICIOUS CONVERSATION

With the support of friends, Susannah puts her future on the line to open up downtown Salt Lake City's first all-chocolate cafe, The Cholcolate Bar, a place where scrumptious conversations and delectable desserts abound. In the midst of all this, social turmoil hits Susannah when she catches the interest of the city's most eligible bachelor just as her long-lost love returns to town--with intentions of marrying anyone but Susannah.

Reader's Opinions

This is a modern retelling of Jane Austen's Persuasion, only the auther never said that's what it is, but it was really obvious to me. Susannah Hapsburg thought she would grow up get married and have babies, but when she actually does grow up she talks (persuades) herself out of love and goes on a mission. After the mission, things...
