

SHADOW IN GLASS

Every little girl dreams of waking up a Princess... ...the reality, Carrie finds out, isn't exactly a fairy tale. Carrie Whitmore, aspiring journalist, wakes up after a building collapse to find herself in a world where she is a spoiled, bratty princess engaged to a self-indulgent egomaniac. She has no college education and no friends at all. Carrie finds out that "she" wants nothing to do with the crown after...

Reader's Opinions

3.5 Stars I thought this was a pretty good read. The storyline was solid, it was the characters that I had a problem with. I felt no connection, they just fell flat for me. I will come back to Shadow in Glass and see if I like it better after a reread.
