

GRUESOME HARVEST

On May 8, 1945 the shooting ended in Europe. But, shockingly, the war against Germany went on. Roosevelt, Stalin and Churchill had decreed that the German people must suffer--and suffer they did. Driven from their homes, looted of their property, decimated...

Reader's Opinions

This book, written shortly after World War II ended, gave me a very historical view of how the Allies treated Germany and punished the civilians as well as the military. I would like to read more about Joseph Stalin as a result of reading this book as he appeared...

Noone can credibly cast doubt on Mr. Keeling. He is honest, simple as that. Read it and pause, what is it, what can it be that will make people feel they can do this? Morgenthau, the answer is Morgenthau, how can this beast not be condemned...
