

A BRASS HAT IN NO MAN'S LAND

This is a “front line” war book, written by a soldier, born and bred to war, and experienced in the art of killing, who despite his snappy manner on parade, was at all times a human being. Crozier served as a regimental officer in the line in 1915, a battalion commander on the Somme, leading a thousand Ulstermen to almost certain death at Thiepval, a Brigade Commander at the Bourslon Wood, the...
