Reader's Opinions

A wonderful first installment in Peeters's Aama series. The story is gripping, and the characters -- esp. Verloc -- are complex enough that you want to know more about them. In fact, the entire narrative makes you yearn for more. The story so far is like an...

The promising first volume of what is shaping up to be a trippy yet politically charged sci-fi thriller by Swiss cartoonist Frdrik Peeters. In terms of recent sci-fi comics, it reads like a cross between Reminders Fear Agent (alcoholism, broken family, need for reunion and redemption) and Grahams Prophet (amnesia, disorientation, mission)...
