

HIDDEN MAGIC

When Jenny has the opportunity to spend the summer with her sister, a small slice of freedom is all she's really hoping for. Instead she finds something else altogether: electricity. That's what Jenny feels when she looks at Arram. She knows he's drawn to her too, but the mage-in-training does his best...

Reader's Opinions

This could have been a good read. I read an ARC copy (thank you Mark My Words Book Publicity) so perhaps there will be some needed major editing before publication. The transitions between scenes, chapters and even paragraphs was really rough. I felt jerked out of the story with nearly every transition....

This was a fun read! It was quick to get into the characters and the story, and I liked watching the character growth as the story moves on. Jenny's naiveté makes sense considering how sheltered she was and that she was only nineteen. It will be interesting...
