

A CONVENIENT HUSBAND

Just before boarding the Bride Train, outspoken intellectual Florence Peabody unofficially adopts two children to save them from a terrible fate. Lawyer Benjamin Elliott is desperate to find the quiet, obedient wife he promised his identical twin, Ranger. Though he's decided never to marry, he enjoys Florence's company. When she must produce a husband...

Reader's Opinions

I like this whole series and love to catch up on all the other characters in each book. This is at least the 2nd time that i have read this one and each time it gets a little bit better.

Once again Butler returns to the Montana Territory with a novel that will curl your toes and knock your socks off. Ranching come to life in a big way through Butlers intricate descriptions. The seamless plot was so much fun to read. I love how budding relationships were key, but yet werent the entire story. Family obligations and love...
