Reader's Opinions

If you have ever been in New Mexico, you are familiar with the eternal question, "Red or Green?". In this case, it's the green that's the killer. Former Posadas County sheriff Bill Gastner is supposedly retired but finds himself up to his Livestock Inspector badge in solving the murder of his good friend. This book will resonate with everyone...

I picked this one up as a freebie from Amazon for my Kindle. I was not disappointed at all. The characters are great; they are very well developed and engaging to the reader. The plot was pretty straight forward, but there were some twists as well. All...
