Reader's Opinions

I absolutely love Fiona Gibson. Without a doubt she always puts you in a good mood with her books. How The In-Laws Wrecked Christmas is a little piece of Christmas heaven. It is drama central from beginning to end. You fall in love with heroine Anna straight away, a normal Yorkshire girl with little money, but a huge heart. Watching...

I enjoyed this short little story. It's not over-the-top Christmassy. For anyone who has felt utterly out of place with a significant others' family, you'll be able to relate. I felt that the ending was rushed and that it could have been done better....
