Peek Inside the Book

Belief in such things was widespread in America and Britain at the start of the twentieth century, when an Ouija board was a regular fixture in drawing rooms, to be brought out after dinner for impromptu sances. Erik Larson, Dead Wake: The Last Crossing of the Lusitania //

Reader's Opinions

Wow....This is an all-embracing historical heartbreak story....a tragedy that could have been avoided. The seas were a war zone ..Right from the start, we learn that their were delays leaving New York...(America was not yet at war yet in May, 1915, against Germany). Red flag warnings were everywhere. They were suppose to run the ship...
