

THE UNICORN WAR

Magic works on Strand but not in the presence of machines. Jarrod Courtak, Mage of Strand, is the savior of his people thanks to his ability to communicate with the rare and powerful race of unicorns that sometimes visits this world. Following the defeat of the Outlanders, the nations of Strand contend for rule and only the unicorns can prevent the mage's helplessness in the face of war machines.

Reader's Opinions

On its own merits this book might have been good, but as the fifth and final book in an increasingly tiring series, I can only say thank god there are no more books to read in this series. The books started out great but again I think the author over did this work and succeeding in tiring...

You know what's annoying? When you're thirteen years old and madly combing through the library for anything about unicorns, and you find this book, only to realize that it's the fifth in a series...
