Peek Inside the Book

Not worried about the decor, Brandt. Seriously. Just find us some place where no one you knew from the good old days is going to walk in on us. The Black Bear Inn it is, Will said (...). For the record, those weren't the good old days. These days with you, these are the good old days. Right now. Josh Lanyon, Kick Start //

Reader's Opinions

What happened to Josh Lanyon and who the hell wrote this? This is just a way lower quality than I would expect from Lanyon. First the opening scene is confusing as hell and not gripping at all. And I still don't know how Will ended up on the roof of a car speeding...

This was so poor and the price of this book was extortionate for a novella. I understand that Josh Lanyon has been on a break of some sorts. I enjoyed Haunted Heights a lot. This was beyond horrible, don't get me wrong; it might be the ONLY book the author has written that...
