Reader's Opinions

What a slog. The first volume was fun. There are moments of fun here but the story is awful. Crossovers can be the death to momentum. And so much happens between issues. Just...

What a shame. I feel like the creative staff had really gotten a handle on the characterization and tone they wanted to go with for the series, and it could have been really good. Unfortunately, it got snared in crossovers (something about Manhunters, I don't even know) and team-ups (Suicide Squad, which ok) and couldn't really be its...
