

SHALLOW GRAVE IN TRINITY COUNTY

1955. California, a postwar dream. One day, walking home from school, Stephanie Bryan, a 14-year-old from Berkeley, vanishes. Three months later her personal belongings are found in the basement of Burton Abbott, a lanky 27-year-old student who lives nearby. Harry Farrell's taut narrative hones in on...

Reader's Opinions

A fascinating read with great personal resonance for me, because the author casually revealed midway through the book that the victim was not only the first cousin of someone I grew up with, but also the niece of my dad's boss. It was even more satisfying than average to read about this guy going to prison. Unusually well written, too....
