

TEACUP FULL OF ROSES

Joe thought Davey was the one who would make it. Davey had the smarts and he had a golden arm, shooting hoops like nobody's business. Joe's other brother, Paul, had been golden once, painting pictures so beautiful you wanted to crawl into them. Now he didn't have time to paint. All he could do was keep pumping drugs into his arm. But Joe's mother still loved Paul - loved him to the...

Reader's Opinions

This book is not my type at all. It is written pretty well, I guess. I have to read it for class though. I just started it, and I am hoping to be done by Tuesday.

I read reading this book quite frequently as a tween and teenager. I LOVED it, but I haven't read it in like a decade or more. I need to read it again to see if I still affects as much as before.
