

HOW TO FORGET

A book of laughter and regretting Magicov the Magnificent, great illusionist, earns his living entertaining the geriatrics of Lotus House Care-home. But Mr Magicov (also known as Peter) envies them - they've mastered a trick that eludes him. They can forget. There are so many things Peter yearns to forget: the shameful moment an eight-year-old wrecked his life; the FBI agent...

Reader's Opinions

It felt confused to me neither thriller, rom com or medical journal about the brain. I enjoyed the insight into magic and working a con but that's about it brilliant.
