Reader's Opinions

I have read and reviewed this series from the beginning (Witchstruck and Witchfall being books 1 and 2). I have to say that this may have been my favorite book in the series. For one, our lead character is finally gaining some confidence in herself, which is great to see as in the other two books I always...

Was a bit slow at the start but I really enjoyed this last book in the trilogy. The suspense and plot twists were pretty good and the number of characters who got on my nerves throughout the whole thing was a new record. I loved the ending, didn't think it was too predictable but I did ****SPOILER**** feel sorry for Richard at the end....
