Reader's Opinions

After reading Vandal Savage in Demon Knights this is a very different take on Savage. DC comics meets Silence of the Lambs. And we get origins and closures for cancelled books like Mr Terrific and Hawk and Dove.

An interesting new take on the evil that is Vandal Savage. James Robinson does a really good job of grounding the normally over the top villain. While his ideas might not be very new and original, they're still very well done. Bernard Chang does a great job of conveying the emotions and villainy in each page. If the story could have...
