

KEEPER

When Captain Alex Marcase's estranged father dies, he hopes his inheritance will be enough to fund his next deep space expedition. When his inheritance turns out to be a genetically-altered slave named Evan, it's just the beginning of the end of Alex's normal, orderly life. Not only does Evan have his own brand of morality, his special abilities are coveted by...

Reader's Opinions

Probably a 4.5/5, actually. After I finished reading Keeper I immediately went to sleep to read the other three in the series. The world-building isn't bad and the plot is pretty good, but it's the character development that really makes this worth five stars. (view spoiler) [From the very beginning, when Alex reacts poorly to learning...
