

BREAKING RANK

When Casey Willardson is assigned to tutor Thomas Fairbairn also known as Baby she approaches her task with great trepidation. Baby is a member of the Clan, a mysterious group of young men who do not talk to outsiders or participate in school. Baby and Casey's relationship is awkward at first, but soon they turn to each other. As the Clan drifts from it's mooring, Baby grows distant from his brother and the rest of the group that he considers family. As...

Reader's Opinions

I am currently on chapter 4 which is page 54. So far the book is ok. The main character is Baby. He is part of this Clan who everyone hates. They do literally nothing don't talk, work, or show any life in school. They only talk amongst themselves out of school. The principal of the school, assigned Casey, a good student is going to be...

This was a pretty good book, but I felt it was very predictable. I did not really like either of the main characters, which really hurts liking a story. I thought the idea of...
