Reader's Opinions

I really liked Kate, and Zach, and Rusty, and Gideon, and everyone else in this book. They were all characters that were believable, and there motives were easy to understand,and they were likable people!! Kate is very much her own person, but she doesn't let it stifle her as other characters have, and while the three men have past...

Boy did I ever have fun with this one! The plot was a riot and the characters were a blast to get to know. I loved the variety of personalities that we...
