

BLOOD RED

On the coldest night of the year, the happy-go-lucky peddler and story teller Ros is cast out of a village for the sin of lying with another man. He's meant to go to his death, but stumbles instead into the enchanted garden of a Beast... a vampire Beast. Ros, however, has his wits about him, and steals a rose from the garden to protect himself against any tricks. The...

Reader's Opinions

Very nicely crafted. It read like a fairy tale. It had that beautiful mysticism of sorts, yet also a sort of message behind it all. I also liked the way the ending was almost lampshaded. Nicely done.
