

THE DARK HOUSE

George Manville Fenn (1831-1909) was a British writer. He worked as a teacher in Lincolnshire, until he became printer, editor and publisher of various magazines. He had eight children with his wife Susanna Leake, whom he had married in 1855. Most of his works are adventure stories for young readers, featuring Explorers, Smugglers, young Adventurers and Seamen. His adult novels offer critical social commentary on Victorian England, especially reconsidering economic questions. His works include: Hollowdell Grange (1866),...

Reader's Opinions

A wealthy but really strange and reclusive old man dies and leaves a just as strange will... It so happens that all the persons who benefit in some way from this will hardly even knew the man except for a servant and a lawyer. Even his great-nephew hardly knew him. So the will says that there's a treasure in...
