

BAYOU FAIRY TALE

Modern day fairy-tale princess Taylor Hatfield has problems. One: he's a guy. Two: he's Sleeping Beauty, the most useless princess in existence. Throw in his true love, Corentin Devereaux, a huntsman descended from child-eating witches, and Taylor's younger brother, Atticus—this generation's Snow White—who tried to kill him. That didn't go so hot. For two years, Taylor and Corentin live their Happily Ever After. But Corentin is cursed to lose his memory every seven days, including...

Reader's Opinions

A Joyfully Jay review. 4.75 stars Bayou Fairy Tale is the second book in Lex Chases Fairy Tales of the Open Road series. I loved the continuation of Taylor and Corentins story. This one even brings new twisted fairy tales into play Rapunzel, Hansel and Gretel, Peter Pan, and even Frozen. The mind of this author astounds me every time...

i had a tough time getting through the first 100 pages or so, but then it picked up and flew!!! major cliffhanger at the end...on to book 3!!!
