Peek Inside the Book

They had fallen into that instant, easy friendship which feels as though it had begun before any of your memories and will last until you are so old that the humped veins on the back...

Reader's Opinions

We actually have the trilogy as one book The Changes: A Trilogy.

I loved this trilogy when I read them in middle school. They are based on a cool idea. It is about a futuristic time when England begins to revert and believe that electricity, machines etc. are witchcraft. Two kids run off with gypsies to escape.
