

URBAN FAIRY TALE

Modern day fairy-tale princess, Taylor Hatfield, has problems. One, he's a guy. Two, he's an insomniac Sleeping Beauty. Three, his practically perfect brother, Atticus Hatfield, this generation's Snow White, has been irrevocably corrupted by the Witchking. The Library, a clandestine organization, seeks to write "The End" on Atticus, and Taylor faces the impossible when his own parents endorse his brother's demise. With his true love, the huntsman Corentin Devereaux at his side, they...

Reader's Opinions

Won from DSP on Joyfully Jay, and as it is book three with what looks like extensive fantasy world building I think I was always going to struggle to keep up. Full on fantasy where the real world is buried deep is not my forte - I am very literal, no imagination! - so am in awe of people who can create such stories. I liked the humour,...
