Reader's Opinions

I grabbed this to read about the creatures; some of the other content, the herbs and stones sections in particular, seem a waste of space and I wonder that it was included. The funky art gives it a silly, new age-y, feel; I would prefer that information be presented in a more straightforward manner, I almost expected to find fashion...

A great primer in all things supernatural, from mythology and folklore to extra-terrestrials and parapsychology. As a writer, I find it a great starting point for research or inspiration. The only flaw is the lack of an index in...
