

THE PARISIAN CHRISTMAS BAKE OFF

Welcome to the most celebrated patisserie competition in Paris – ready, steady, bake! Watching snowflakes settle on the Eiffel Tower, Rachel Smithson’s cosy English village feels very far way – as, thankfully, does her commitment-phobic ex, probably already kissing someone else under...

Reader's Opinions

Light, silly, and fluffy. I really love reading about Paris during Christmas time, I just miss it so much :(

I thought I would get into the Christmas reading mood by reading The Parisian Christmas Bake Off by Jenny Oliver, which i bought last year but never got round to reading at Christmas. It was a nice read, good characters and not overly Christmas, so didn't mind reading it in September :)
