

THE BATTLE OF ALL THE AGES

Who do you turn to when there's no one left to trust...? Once again Captain Quinton finds himself in the thick of the action, fighting the Dutch in one of the epic encounters of the age of sail. But the battle is a disaster – the fleet is mysteriously divided, with part of it sent to meet a French threat that never materialises,...

Reader's Opinions

The fifth entry in the Mathew Quinton chronicle is up to Mr. Davies usual high standards of scholarship and historical detail. The 1660's is a period rarely visited by authors and readers interested in the "age of fighting sail" genre and the author is one of the best practitioners. Good action and detail involving the 4 day battle...

I received a copy of this book in exchange for an honest review. Coming into this well-written series at book 5 just gave me a taste for further reading. Set in the 1660s, J.D. Davies has...
