Reader's Opinions

I'm not a big SF fan, but my husband is, and whenever he reads one with good characterization and relationships, he recommends it to me. He was spot-on with this one. It's a "first contact" novel, which means an earthling is stranded on some...

Read this book several years ago. It's an okay book, but highly derivative of early Alan Dean Foster. The ecology review is better, but the aliens are really "just like us" only "living in harmony with their environment" which at this point...
