Reader's Opinions

A new take on the Old MacDonald farm rhyme follows a garden through the seasons.

If you had a garden, what would you plant in it? Or if you do have one, what do you plant? First, we all know that Old MacDonald had a farm. Then we found out that on this farm his granddaughter Jo MacDonald Saw Pond. Now, Jo plants, tends, and harvests a garden on her grandfathers farm, with help from her cousin Mike. So Mary Quattlebaums...
