

WHILE YOU SLEPT

Isolated in his country estate to forget his past, Sion Sinclair sees no reason to behave around the fairer sex. When a ferocious storm ravages a carriage en route to London, stranding a beautiful passenger with no memory of her past, Sion passes her off as his mistress. The facade sends the "ton's" tongues wagging, but also ignites a passion that Sion cannot ignore. Original.

Reader's Opinions

The edition that I read, was "mutilated" and, it became a "painful" reading. But, I can say, the history seemed interesting.

While You Slept seemed like everything I wanted from a romance novel when I first cracked it open. The writing was good and the characters were really unique and three dimensional at first glance. The shy, bookish, overweight, unattractive heroine with low self esteem; the hero who's an angsty, raging alcoholic; the hero's sassy housekeeper...
