Reader's Opinions

4.5*From the start you know the decision to become fuck-buddies will be more than a casual thing between Patrick and Will while they live under the same roof. Events and tiredness conspire against them so they dont actually spend much time in the bedroom. However this gives them time to get to know each other better and enjoy each others...

I really liked this one and will probably be rereading it in the future. Patrick decides to spend the summer with his older brother before his last year in college. It's not until he arrives that he realizes that someone else is staying with his brother, Ben, as well. At...
