Peek Inside the Book

Spring was approaching at last. Susan Howatch, Cashelmara // before he died Francis father had ordered that the gutters and gargoyles be painted gold, and the innovation had enabled the house to achieve a new and unbelievable pitch of vulgarity. I am incapable of further description; all I can add is...

Reader's Opinions

Ive always been a fan of big fat sagas, and Cashelmara did not disappoint. Set in Ireland in the 19th century, we follow three generations of the wealthy de Salis family. As with all sagas,...

Read last year: am reviewing to make the historical connections. The story is a retelling of the latter end of Edward I's reign through to the beginning of Edward III. However it is told...
