Peek Inside the Book

Oh the glamour of youth! Oh the fire of it, more dazzling than the flames of the burning ship, throwing a magic light on the wide earth, leaping audaciously to the sky, presently to be quenched by time,...

And after some talk we agreed that the wisdom of rats had been grossly overrated, being in fact no greater than that of men. Joseph Conrad, Youth //

Reader's Opinions

A short piece about a young man's first voyage as First Mate. It beautifully expresses what it is like to be young and filled with a sense of responsibility and the thrill of feeling one's power to succeed against the odds. This has...

i could tell you the day i was reading this one. march 7th, 1981, the wash king laundromat on n.e. 17th avenue in gainesville, florida. things happen. i can't honestly say if i finished this one. youth.... ummmm. things happen...and so it goes.
