Reader's Opinions

I have read the print version of this book, and I am now listening to the audiobook, narrated by Stephen Hogan.Innes is one of my favorite mystery authors, and this is one of his books that I really liked. So the audiobook has that going for it already.Hogan's narration is not memorable, but that's a good thing, because that means it...

I had just finished an Agatha Christie novel before reading this. I read this as it was on a list of classic mysteries. I have to say it was very good, absorbing,...
