Peek Inside the Book

Meself I like a breath of air before I go to bed, same as I like a bite o' cheese or something before I take me teeth out. Margery Sharp, The Flowering Thorn //

Reader's Opinions

Surprised meNot the type of book I usually read, but the reviews pricked my interest. One review yearned for a sequel and I decided on the book for that reason. That it did not have a sequel meant that it was a full story, an unusual idea in this age where every book seems to have no ending but is a segment of a story to be carried...

One of Margery Sharp's best. Very witty and heartwarming. A jazz baby impulsively adopts a four year old orphan and it proves to be the making of both of them.
