Reader's Opinions

Another good book from Jane Graves. This is the 3rd in the DeMarco brothers' series. Dave and Lisa. I liked the book, but I think the other two were better than this one.

He married the dependent girly-girl (who is now dead). She stayed independent - until busting the drug deal went wrong and people are out to kill her. She falls back on his promise to her that he'd help her out if she ever needed anything. Lots of flights between Mexico and US.
