Peek Inside the Book

Fear of this order is not an emotion. It is like a virus overwhelming every cell of his body, while his mind struggles to remain clear. Helen Dunmore, The Betrayal //

Anna's too young yet to know that the past is just as real as the present, even though you have to pretend that it isn't, and carry on towards the future. Helen Dunmore, The Betrayal //

Reader's Opinions

Another captivating and intriguing book by Helen Dunmore. Great evocations of fear, betrayal and pain but also love.

An excellent, spine-chilling evocation of The Doctors' Plot in Leningrad in 1952. Stalin became increasingly paranoid before his death and purged, or arrested, one group of professionals after another, engineers, architects, then doctors, particularly those who were...
