Reader's Opinions

Where volume 1 dealt with Earl Tubb returning to Craw, Alabama, coming to terms with his past under his deceased father's shadow, volume 2 follows a different path: Euless Boss, now "Coach Boss" of the Runnin' Rebs football team, then a sad-sack linebacker mocked by teammates ("Euless" becomes "Useless"). With...

A deeper understanding of all the southern bastards is found in volume 2. We get the backstory to Boss and it is damn good. Jason Aaron transitions so well into volume 2 I actually think it is better than vol.1. I'm starting to see Jason had...
