ROAD TO PARADISE

Nicola Stone gives up her career as the nation's most sought after super model when she senses a malevolent force stalking her at a party in New York. When everything inside her urges her to flee, she runs not to her high-rise penthouse but back to her childhood home. Danger is never far behind until she meets the intense Jarrod...

Reader's Opinions

The overall premise of the book occasionally felt contrived. The emotional relationship between the 4 lead characters never had a chance to develop. The "need" for sex upon almost initial meeting was discouraging. Add that to a lot of editing issues and it didn't make for the best read. Overall, it was a pretty easy read that required...
